DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE'S ANSWER TO
PETITION FOR PARTITION OF LAND

COMES NOW Department of Revenue, ("Department"), Defendant, by and through its attorney of record, Michael S. Kisling, Special Assistant Attorney General, and states as its Answer to Petition as follows:

1. The Department is without sufficient information to admit or deny the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 12, inclusive, and therefore must deny same.

Further answering, the Department notes that it has filed a certificate of tax lien against Richard Williams, SSN XXX-XX-4568, in the St. Louis Circuit Court pursuant to Section 143.902, RSMo. The Department's lien is attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit A.

Such tax delinquency is still outstanding and subject to the accrual of interest.

By operation of Section 143.902, RSMo, the certificate of tax lien attaches to all real and personal property, including the subject property identified in paragraph 1 of the Petition, belonging to Richard Williams, SSN XXX-XX-4568.

2. The balance on the Department's certificate of tax lien is as of October 21, 2022, $37,995.40 plus accrued interest.

3. The Department is entitled to have this Court declare its interest against the subject property identified in paragraph 1 of the Petition in the course of this partition suit.

WHEREFORE, the Department prays this Court to award the Department its full interest as identified above, subject to the accrual of interest, against the subject property identified in paragraph 1 of the Petition in the course of this partition suit; to tax costs of these proceedings against Plaintiff and deny Plaintiff's request for costs and attorney's fees; and for such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

PETITION FOR PARTITION OF LAND

Comes Now Plaintiffs, Richard Williams Jr. and Ruth Nicole Crumer, and for the Petition for Partition of Land, state:

1. Richard Williams, Sr. died on or about November 15, 2015, intestate and seized in fee of a certain tract of land situated in St. Louis County Missouri, described as Lot 13B of Villages at Barrington Downs Section "B"-- Arlington Village, a subdivision in St. Louis County, Missouri, according to the plat thereof recorded in Plat Book 275 page 30 of the St. Louis County Records.

Known as 809 Sprinters Row Drive, Saint Louis, Missouri 63034, hereinafter referred to as the "land."

2. Richard Williams Sr. left surviving as sole next-of-kin and heirs-at-law, three children, Richard Williams, Jr., Mary Ellen Wilson and Ruth Nicole Crumer.

3. Plaintiff Richard Williams, Jr. is an individual residing in St. Louis County, Missouri.

4. Plaintiff Ruth Nicole Crumer is an individual residing in St. Louis County, Missouri.

5. The St. Louis County Probate Court, on January 25, 2021, in Case Number 20SL-PR02894, did Order that Richard Williams, Sr.'s heirs at law are Richard Williams, Jr., Mary Ellen Wilson and Ruth Nicole Crumer, and are to share in Richard Williams, Sr.'s estate in equal 1/3 shares.

6. Defendant Mary Ellen Wilson is of full age, married and spouse's name is Anthony Wilson, Defendant, who is of full age, residing in St. Louis County.

7. Jurisdiction and venue are proper before this Court in that the land that is the subject matter of this action is located in St. Louis County.

8. Since the death of Richard Williams, Sr. Defendant Mary Ellen Wilson has been occupying the land.

9. Plaintiff, Richard Williams, Jr., is seized of one equal undivided third part in the land and the Plaintiff, Kimberly Ann Williams, spouse of Richard Williams Jr., has an inchoate right of dower in the part of the land to which Plaintiff, Richard Williams, Jr. is entitled.

10. Plaintiff Ruth Nicole Crumer is seized of one equal undivided third part in the land and the Plaintiff, Larry Crumer, spouse of Ruth Nicole Crumer, has an inchoate right of dower in the part of the land to which Plaintiff, Ruth Nicole Crumer, is entitled.

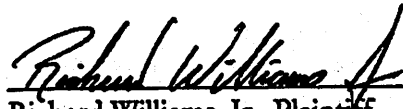

11. Defendant Mary Ellen Wilson is seized of one equal undivided third part in the land. Defendant, Anthony Wilson, spouse of Mary Ellen Wilson, has an inchoate right of dower in the part of the land which Defendant, Mary Ellen Wilson is entitled.

12. The Plaintiffs desire that a fair partition of the land be made among them and the other persons entitled to share therein according to their right and interests as set out above, or, if an actual partition can not be made without great prejudice to those entitled to share therein, that the land be sold and the proceeds divided among the Plaintiffs and the other persons entitled to share therein according to their rights and interests as set out above.

Wherefore, Plaintiffs demand:

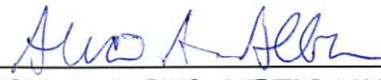

A. That a fair partition of the land be made among the Plaintiffs and the other persons entitled to share therein according to their respective rights and interests.

- B. That the liens, if any, on the individual interest of any of the parties be charged to the share assigned to such party but subject to a charge on such share of its just proportion of the costs of this action and to a charge of the sum which shall be found to be due to the Plaintiffs for moneys expended by Plaintiffs for taxes in preference to such lien.
- C. If an actual partition can not be made without great prejudice to the respective parties, or is impracticable, then the land should be sold, including the inchoate rights of dower of the Plaintiff Kimberly Ann Williams, spouse of Richard Williams, Jr. and Larry Crumer, spouse of Ruth Nicole Crumer and Defendant Anthony Wilson, spouse of Mary Ellen Wilson.
- D. If a sale is held, the proceeds shall be paid as follows: first, the costs of the action; second, the amount found due to Plaintiffs for moneys expended by Plaintiffs for taxes, third, to satisfy lawful and valid liens attached to the land, and fourth, the balance distributed between the plaintiffs and defendants and the other persons entitled to share therein according to their respective rights and interests. The portion of the proceeds arising from the sale of any share against which there are existing any liens or encumbrances held by any creditor of a party hereto shall be paid into this Court to be disposed of as this Court may direct.
- E. That an account may be taken of the sums of money expended by the Plaintiffs, Richard Williams, Jr. and Ruth Nicole Crumer, in the payment of taxes and of the proportionate amounts of such expenditure which should have been paid by the several parties interested, and that in case of an actual partition, the respective proportionate amount be adjudged a lien up on the respective shares assigned to such parties, or, that in the case of a sale, the sum so found due to such Plaintiffs be paid prior to the payments to the parties of their shares in the proceeds.

NOTICE OF ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SERVICES

Purpose of Notice

As a party to a lawsuit in this court, you have the right to have a judge or jury decide your case. However, most lawsuits are settled by the parties before a trial takes place. This is often true even when the parties initially believe that settlement is not possible. A settlement reduces the expense and inconvenience of litigation. It also eliminates any uncertainty about the results of a trial.

Alternative dispute resolution services and procedures are available that may help the parties settle their lawsuit faster and at less cost. Often such services are most effective in reducing costs if used early in the course of a lawsuit. Your attorney can aid you in deciding whether and when such services would be helpful in your case.

Your Rights and Obligations in Court Are Not Affected By This Notice

You may decide to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure if the other parties to your case agree to do so. In some circumstances, a judge of this court may refer your case to an alternative dispute resolution procedure described below. These procedures are not a substitute for the services of a lawyer and consultation with a lawyer is recommended. Because you are a party to a lawsuit, you have obligations and deadlines which must be followed whether you use an alternative dispute resolution procedure or not. IF YOU HAVE BEEN SERVED WITH A PETITION, YOU MUST FILE A RESPONSE ON TIME TO AVOID THE RISK OF DEFAULT JUDGMENT, WHETHER OR NOT YOU CHOOSE TO PURSUE AN ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE.

Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures

There are several procedures designed to help parties settle lawsuits. Most of these procedures involve the services of a neutral third party, often referred to as the “neutral,” who is trained in dispute resolution and is not partial to any party. The services are provided by individuals and organizations who may charge a fee for this help. Some of the recognized alternative dispute resolutions procedures are:

(1) Advisory Arbitration: A procedure in which a neutral person or persons (typically one person or a panel of three persons) hears both sides and decides the case. The arbitrator’s decision is not binding and simply serves to guide the parties in trying to settle their lawsuit. An arbitration is typically less formal than a trial, is usually shorter, and may be conducted in a private setting at a time mutually agreeable to the parties. The parties, by agreement, may select the arbitrator(s) and determine the rules under which the arbitration will be conducted.

(2) Mediation: A process in which a neutral third party facilitates communication between the parties to promote settlement. An effective mediator may offer solutions that have not been considered by the parties or their lawyers. A mediator may not impose his or her own judgment on the issues for that of the parties.

CCADM73

(3) Early Neutral Evaluation (“ENE”): A process designed to bring the parties to the litigation and their counsel together in the early pretrial period to present case summaries before and receive a non-binding assessment from an experienced neutral evaluator. The objective is to promote early and meaningful communication concerning disputes, enabling parties to plan their cases effectively and assess realistically the relative strengths and weaknesses of their positions. While this confidential environment provides an opportunity to negotiate a resolution, immediate settlement is not the primary purpose of this process.

(4) Mini-Trial: A process in which each party and their counsel present their case before a selected representative for each party and a neutral third party, to define the issues and develop a basis for realistic settlement negotiations. The neutral third party may issue an advisory opinion regarding the merits of the case. The advisory opinion is not binding.

(5) Summary Jury Trial: A summary jury trial is a non binding, informal settlement process in which jurors hear abbreviated case presentations. A judge or neutral presides over the hearing, but there are no witnesses and the rules of evidence are relaxed. After the “trial”, the jurors retire to deliberate and then deliver an advisory verdict. The verdict then becomes the starting point for settlement negotiations among the parties.

Selecting an Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedure and a Neutral

If the parties agree to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure, they must decide what type of procedure to use and the identity of the neutral. As a public service, the St. Louis County Circuit Clerk maintains a list of persons who are available to serve as neutrals. The list contains the names of individuals who have met qualifications established by the Missouri Supreme Court and have asked to be on the list. The Circuit Clerk also has Neutral Qualifications Forms on file. These forms have been submitted by the neutrals on the list and provide information on their background and expertise. They also indicate the types of alternative dispute resolution services each neutral provides.

A copy of the list may be obtained by request in person and in writing to: Circuit Clerk, Office of Dispute Resolution Services, 105 South Central Ave., 5th Floor, Clayton, Missouri 63105. The Neutral Qualifications Forms will also be made available for inspection upon request to the Circuit Clerk.

The List and Neutral Qualification Forms are provided only as a convenience to the parties in selecting a neutral. The court cannot advise you on legal matters and can only provide you with the List and Forms. You should ask your lawyer for further information.

Directions to Officer Making Return on Service of Summons

A copy of the summons and a copy of the motion and/or petition must be served on each Defendant/Respondent. If any Defendant/Respondent refuses to receive the copy of the summons and motion and/or petition when offered to him, the return shall be prepared to show the offer of the officer to deliver the summons and motion and/or petition and the Defendant's/Respondent's refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to the individual personally or by leaving a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of the family over 15 years of age, or by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to the guardian personally; (3) On Corporation, Partnership or Other Unincorporated Association. On a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to an officer, partner, or managing or general agent, or by leaving the copies at any business office of the Defendant/Respondent with the person having charge thereof or by delivering copies to its registered agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (4) On Public or Quasi-Public Corporation or Body. On a public, municipal, governmental or quasi-public corporation or body in the case of a county, to the mayor or city clerk or city attorney in the case of a city, to the chief executive officer in the case of any public, municipal, governmental, or quasi-public corporation or body or to any person otherwise lawfully so designated.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory in the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word "territory" for the word "state."

The officer making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant's authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

Service must not be made less than ten days nor more than sixty days from the date the Defendant/Respondent is to appear in court. The return should be made promptly, and in any event so that it will reach the Missouri Court within 30 days after service.

In some circumstances, a judge of this court may refer your case to an alternative dispute resolution procedure described below. These procedures are not a substitute for the services of a lawyer and consultation with a lawyer is recommended. Because you are a party to a lawsuit, you have obligations and deadlines which must be followed whether you use an alternative dispute resolution procedure or not. IF YOU HAVE BEEN SERVED WITH A PETITION, YOU MUST FILE A RESPONSE ON TIME TO AVOID THE RISK OF DEFAULT JUDGMENT, WHETHER OR NOT YOU CHOOSE TO PURSUE AN ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE.

Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures

There are several procedures designed to help parties settle lawsuits. Most of these procedures involve the services of a neutral third party, often referred to as the "neutral," who is trained in dispute resolution and is not partial to any party. The services are provided by individuals and organizations who may charge a fee for this help. Some of the recognized alternative dispute resolutions procedures are:

(1) Advisory Arbitration: A procedure in which a neutral person or persons (typically one person or a panel of three persons) hears both sides and decides the case. The arbitrator's decision is not binding and simply serves to guide the parties in trying to settle their lawsuit. An arbitration is typically less formal than a trial, is usually shorter, and may be conducted in a private setting at a time mutually agreeable to the parties. The parties, by agreement, may select the arbitrator(s) and determine the rules under which the arbitration will be conducted.

(2) Mediation: A process in which a neutral third party facilitates communication between the parties to promote settlement. An effective mediator may offer solutions that have not been considered by the parties or their lawyers. A mediator may not impose his or her own judgment on the issues for that of the parties.

(3) Early Neutral Evaluation (“ENE”): A process designed to bring the parties to the litigation and their counsel together in the early pretrial period to present case summaries before and receive a non-binding assessment from an experienced neutral evaluator. The objective is to promote early and meaningful communication concerning disputes, enabling parties to plan their cases effectively and assess realistically the relative strengths and weaknesses of their positions. While this confidential environment provides an opportunity to negotiate a resolution, immediate settlement is not the primary purpose of this process.

(4) Mini-Trial: A process in which each party and their counsel present their case before a selected representative for each party and a neutral third party, to define the issues and develop a basis for realistic settlement negotiations. The neutral third party may issue an advisory opinion regarding the merits of the case. The advisory opinion is not binding.

(5) Summary Jury Trial: A summary jury trial is a non binding, informal settlement process in which jurors hear abbreviated case presentations. A judge or neutral presides over the hearing, but there are no witnesses and the rules of evidence are relaxed. After the “trial”, the jurors retire to deliberate and then deliver an advisory verdict. The verdict then becomes the starting point for settlement negotiations among the parties.

Selecting an Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedure and a Neutral

If the parties agree to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure, they must decide what type of procedure to use and the identity of the neutral. As a public service, the St. Louis County Circuit Clerk maintains a list of persons who are available to serve as neutrals. The list contains the names of individuals who have met qualifications established by the Missouri Supreme Court and have asked to be on the list. The Circuit Clerk also has Neutral Qualifications Forms on file. These forms have been submitted by the neutrals on the list and provide information on their background and expertise. They also indicate the types of alternative dispute resolution services each neutral provides.

A copy of the list may be obtained by request in person and in writing to: Circuit Clerk, Office of Dispute Resolution Services, 7900 Carondelet Avenue, 5th Floor, Clayton, Missouri 63105. The Neutral Qualifications Forms will also be made available for inspection upon request to the Circuit Clerk.

The List and Neutral Qualification Forms are provided only as a convenience to the parties in selecting a neutral. The court cannot advise you on legal matters and can only provide you with the List and Forms. You should ask your lawyer for further information.
